

HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

It was a rainy night in January, 1917, when Charlie Varney was graduated from San Diego High.

His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Varney of Ocean Beach, attended the graduation. Coming home on the street car through Wabaska Canyon, Charlie and his parents found themselves stranded when mud overflowed the tracks and stalled the car.

So they walked home through darkness and pouring rain . . . to the 4700 block of Saratoga Ave.

That incident will serve as the prelude to a timely news release issued by the Railway Historical Society of San Diego.

It came from Eric Sanders, historian-librarian, of La Mesa. He says that Wabaska Canyon, route of the new Nimitz Blvd. which was dedicated Saturday, has been used by two S. D. railroads.

The Roseville and Ocean Beach Railroad was opened by one-time San Diego Mayor William H. Carlson on April 17, 1888.

San Diegans going to real estate sales or to the hotel built on the cliffs at Ocean Beach rode the steam launch to Roseville for a connection there with the "steam dummy train" to Ocean Beach . . . Balloon ascensions and other attractions were staged but the railroad failed and track was torn up and shipped north.

Electric interurban service came to Wabaska Canyon in 1909. Organized by D. C. Collier and John D. Spreckels, the Point Loma Railroad provided fast service around the bay from San Diego to Roseville and then through the canyon to Ocean Beach.

A branch was later constructed on Roscamans St. to the Government reservation . . . At Ocean Beach the independent Bay Shore Railroad operated shuttle street car service over the Mission Bay bridge to "Old" Mission Beach.

For some time the interurbans also operated over the loop route from the top of Wabaska Canyon via Catalina, Orchard, Guizot, and Santa Cruz to Bacon St. in Ocean Beach.

The Point Loma Railroad advertised excursions to the Theosophical Institute (now Cal Western U.) where visitors viewed outdoor exercises, concerts and drills. Pupils of the Raja-Yoga College and Academy entertained in the Greek Theatre.

The interurbans also transported San Diegans via Voltaire and Bacon Sts. to Wonderland (a big amusement center that was ahead of its time) at the entrance to Mission Bay.

City street cars later replaced the interurbans on the line and in 1919 the San Diego Electric Railway Co. took over operation.

In 1924 when the La Jolla line was built the cars were routed over the new line via the flats from Barnett Ave. to the south bank of the San Diego River. From there they traveled on Bacon St. to the heart of Ocean Beach.

At that time the route through Wabaska Canyon was abandoned.

So says Brother Sanders . . . An old-time O. B. resident says his summary sounds accurate.

Significant quotes:
Jack D. Rees, president of California Teachers Association—"It isn't enough to educate a person so that he can fashion a weapon of destruction. Mathematics minus morality can be murder."

And that's where Cal Western comes in . . . Good luck, Doc!

Many Register Dogs For Show

Advance reservations for the Feb. 16 Silver Bay Kennel Club of San Diego All-Breed Dog Show are running 14% higher than any previous year, Jack Bradshaw, show superintendent, reported.

The annual winter event, sponsored by the American Kennel Club, Inc., will be held in the Electric Building, Balboa Park.

"Because of the exceptionally heavy advance registration, including more out-of-county and out-of-state entries than ever before, more than 50,000 square feet of floor space, as well as outdoor patios, will be utilized for showing and obedience trials," Bradshaw said.

Entry blanks and premium lists are now available at veterinarians and pet shops throughout the county, Bradshaw announced. Applications must be received at Bradshaw's Los Angeles headquarters, 1412 West 12th, Los Angeles, by noon, Feb. 3.

Hypnotic Marvels Due February 6

The stage show, "Hypnotic Marvels," will open Thursday, Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Strand Theatre.

Residents of Ocean Beach will have their first opportunity to see Professor George Singer, star of the show, on that day at 12:30 p.m. when he appears in person at Newport & Cable to hypnotize a local citizen.

This demonstration is free, and everyone is invited to get a glimpse of this hypnotist who will headline the two-hour show sponsored by the Peninsula Lions Club, for the benefit of the blind.

Professor Singer in his "on the street" demonstration of hypnosis will place a subject in a deep sleep and then suspend the subject between two chairs. While in this rigid position 200 pounds of weight will be placed upon the abdomen of the hypnotized person.

The old adage "Seeing is Believing" will be full of meaning for the audience which attends "the extraordinary and baffling program" to be presented at the Strand Theatre by Professor Singer.

"The show abounds with hilarity, and is billed as a whole-some type of family entertainment, including amazing sequences of audience participation which will never be forgotten by those who see it."

Boy Scouts Plan To Develop Camp

Development of a 679-acre Scout Reservation to meet the program needs of an expanding membership is being undertaken by the San Diego Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Council President Dwight E. Stanford, announced plans to start for a $658,947 capital fund campaign to pay for and develop property located in the Mataguay Valley, near Warner Hot Springs into a year-round camping and activities center.

"The Community Chest of the San Diego area and other chests of the county have endorsed the capital fund campaign inasmuch as the United Fund Campaign is for operating funds only, and the Scout organization must meet its own capital fund need," advised Stanford.

"The goal for the Mataguay Camp development fund was set at $658,947 after careful consideration of what was needed to provide an adequate camping and activities program for the increased membership of the Boy Scouts of America in San Diego County."

"Membership of the Boy Scout movement in San Diego County has soared from 6,500 Scouts in 1947 to more than 21,000 at the present time, and conservative studies show that 39,000 San Diego County Boys will be enrolled in Scouting by 1965."

Sportfishermen Haul 'Em In Despite Weather

Judging from test runs last weekend, made under the worst possible weather conditions, the surface fishing season for yellowtail and other game fish is ready to pop wide open any day now at the Coronado Islands.

In spite of steady rain and gusty winds, the Polaris and Worrior VII combined efforts last Saturday to deck six yellowtails, 258 barracuda and 50 calico bass. Sunday, the Worrior VII ventured out alone under worst conditions and brought 14 yellowtails to bag out of 37 hookups. Rudy Mehoff, San Diego, caught six yellowtails himself to top all hands.

Sportfishing boats will continue to probe the possibilities of a full-scale early season opening with additional test runs this week.

In the meantime, the kelp area around the whistling buoy still is producing good catches of barracuda and bottom fishing boats are hauling in good catches of red cod, groupers, and ling day after day.

"New Hope For Hearts."

This year's goal is $145,000. Mrs. Sylvan Planson and Mrs. Ben Hagar, Ocean Beach's 1958 Heart Sunday co-chairmen, announced.

"We have every hope of reaching this goal," Mrs. Planson said. "We believe that the people of San Diego County appreciate the magnitude of the No. 1 killer in this community and throughout the U. S., the vast human suffering resulting from the heart diseases, and the loss they cause in industrial productivity."

YOU CAN'T WIN

See the new picture at the top of this column?

The other one was getting worn from use and allowed too much ink to seep in. About a year ago your reporter began writing notes to the printer: "Please wash my face. I look like the bearded woman in the circus."

The printer answered: "We can't shave off the sideburns. You'll have to have a new picture taken."

Procrastination crept in.

As time went by the face took on a misplaced goatee and a half mustache on the left side. Then the boss said, "Ad, you'd better have a new picture made."

Procrastination was still around.

Pretty soon the picture showed a black patch over the left eye and the once-white blouse turned out to be a black-and-white hound's tooth check. The reporter's friends waited.

But do you know what made her see that little man who hides under the black cloth—one remark from a teenage daughter: "Mother, you look so drippy."

Following Week: The daughter picked up the paper and screamed: "Mother, why did you let them use THAT picture? You look so squarish."

(PS—Watch this column, same page, same paper, for another cut. Anyone have a photo of Elizabeth Taylor lying around?)

A ROPE OF BILLS

"For five dollars," said the senior at San Diego State College, "I'll give you at least 130 of the 150 true-and-false questions we just had on our final examination. You have an hour to look up the answers before about it?"

The student agreed, handed him the money and received the questions.

After cramming for an hour, he hurried to class and, feeling confident, took the last available seat in the crowded room.

The exam had been mimeographed and the sheets were being passed out. Four seats away from the cheater the monitor ran out of test sheets.

"That's all right," said the professor. "If you four students will step up to my desk I'll give you a test in essay form."

What happened to the lad? He failed.

LOCAL LOYALTY

Friends of the climate club noted, with distress, the character who ambled across a college campus over the damp week-end. It was during one of the more misty moments. This character had his pants rolled up to his knees and carrying an OPENED umbrella.

"Foreigner," cried one on-looker.

"Yeah, another D. T.," agreed his buddy, wiping the rain from his face.

"What do you mean, D.T.?"

"Displaced Texan," grinned the wet coed.

CUB PACK 510

A well-attended Pack Meeting was held Jan. 24th in the auditorium of Sacred Heart Church, Ocean Beach.

Some 27 awards were presented to 10 Cub Scouts. Five boys received Bobcat pins—Terry Ivory, Christopher Glenn, Richard Gustafson, Robert Eldred and Steven Baylas.

"Soup," a silent movie skit by Den I was enjoyed by those present. Also, several reels of time silent cartoons were shown. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Insko produced the musical background and lighting effects. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Murray were Ideas Committee for January, representing Den 1.

Pack 510 will have a window display during Scout Week, Feb. 7 through 13, thanks to Homer's Variety Store on Newport Ave.

Feb. 15 at 6 p.m. is the time set for the annual Blue and Gold Club Scout Banquet. It will be held in the church auditorium.

On Feb. 9 Cub Scouts will attend the 7:30 a.m. Corporate Communion Mass of the Sacred Heart Holy Name Society with their dads. Breakfast and a program will follow.

While you can still plant bare root stock, shop at your nurseryman's for some of the lovely dwarf fruits which provide excellent fruit in a small space. Dwarf forms of apples and pears are available. These reach about 8 to 10 feet in height at maturity.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troops 563 and 853, under the leadership of Mrs. T. A. McGinnis and Mrs. S. Lewis, combined to hold a song feast yesterday at the Community Center. Senior Scouts led the songs.

A display at the Ocean Beach Library this week is work accomplished by Troop 868 for their Tree Badge. Mrs. C. P. Laidlaw is the leader.

Troop 563 held a surprise party recently for their president, Marilyn Yoder, who is moving to Santa Ana.

Troop 835 held a Court of Awards earlier this month. 16 girls received five-year pins and 2 girls were awarded six-year pins. Mrs. R. L. Runnalls is the leader of this group, who also had a hay ride party to complete the activities.

These are some of the questions asked and answered in these workshops, which are open to the public. Interested persons may attend one or more, or all the public affairs meetings.

Public Affairs Sessions Offered

A Public Affairs Committee, sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association, meets Wednesdays from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. at the Central YWCA, 1012 C St.

These are workshop sessions, with community leaders from welfare, civic and service agencies, who share their knowledge and experience with other participants.

Do you know your community? Do you know what makes your city tick? Do you know the pros and cons of the city manager type of municipal government?

These are some of the questions asked and answered in these workshops, which are open to the public. Interested persons may attend one or more, or all the public affairs meetings.
